

Ceremonial Card, RCSC Ceremonial Music

This card contains five pieces of music used on ceremonial occasions: "O Canada"; "God Save The Queen"; the "General Salute"; the advance "British Grenadiers"; and the naval advance, "Nancy Lee". The National Anthem is played whenever the Canadian flag is raised, during the naval Sunset Ceremony, during the Ceremony of the Flags and on other ceremonial occasions. "God Save the Queen" is played at the end of many formal occasions and during most naval ceremonies.

When receiving a senior officer or dignitary the "General Salute is played. "Nancy Lee" is played when any naval formations, including the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets, advance in is played when any naval formations, including the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets, advanced in review order at the end of a parade. "British Grenadiers" could also be used, but it is the march past of a British Army Regiment, so is more suited to occasions where a tri-service or army contingent is on parade. "Nancy Lee" is a traditional nautical song. An information sheet about "Nancy Lee" follows the lyrics for "O Canada" and "God Save The Queen".

The melody for "O Canada" was written by C. Lavalee, and the song was sung in French before it was sung in English. The English translation is not accurate, but both versions express heartfelt sentiment if not the same meaning. The lyrics provided were written by R. Stanley Weir, except for the first verse which has been slightly altered.

"God Save The King" has been ascribed to Dr. John Bull, who lived from 1562 to 1628. Ironically, most of Dr. Bull's life was spent under the reign of Queen Elizabeth the First. Most of the rest of his life was under King James the First, referred to by some of his courtiers as "His Sowship"; if the anthem was written for him, he probably needed all the prayers he could get. It is therefore quite possible Dr. Bull actually wrote "God Save The Queen" in honor of Elizabeth the First. Today we sing "God Save The Queen" because our monarch is the Queen Elizabeth the Second. Both songs have three verses given, however usually only one is sung (and played) on parade by cadets.

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The true north strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada!
We stand on guard for thee!
God keep our land glorious and free!

Refrain

O Canada! We stand on guard for thee!
O Canada! We stand on guard for thee!

O Canada! Where pines and maples grow,
Great prairies spread and lordly rivers flow;
How dear to us thy broad domain,
From East to Western Sea!
Thou land of hope for all who toil!
Thou True North, strong and free!

O Canada! Beneath thy shining skies

God Save The Queen

God save our gracious queen,
Long live our noble queen,
God save the queen.
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the queen.

Thy choicest gifts in store,
On her be pleased to pour;
Long may she reign.
May she defend our laws
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the queen.

Our loved Dominion bless
With peace and happiness
From shore to shore;
And let our Empire be United,
Loyal, free, true to herself and thee.

O Canada! beneath thy shining cross
May stalwart sons and gentle maidens rise,
To keep thee steadfast thro' the years,
From East to Western Sea!
Our Fetherland, our Motherland!
Our True North strong and free!

For evermore.

NANCY LEE, NAVAL ADVANCE

Nancy Lee is the wife of Jack Tar. Jack Tar is a nickname customarily given to sailors because in olden times they used tar for many purposes aboard ship and would often be covered in it. Other nicknames for sailors are blue-jackets, matelots (pronounced: mateloes), or gobs for American sailors. The march is used for the Advance in Review Order at the end of a ceremonial parade and is carried out immediately before the departure of the Reviewing Officer. Outdoors, the Advance is fifteen paces with everyone snapping to "attention" on the sixteenth beat. Indoors, or if space is at a premium the Advance may be reduced, usually to seven paces.

Lyrics:

Of all the wives as e'er you know, yeo ho! lads! ho! yeo ho! yeo ho!
There's none like Nancy Lee I trow, yeo ho! yeo ho! yeo ho!
Sae there she stands an' waves her hand upon the quay,
And every day when I'm away she'll watch for me.

And whisper low when tempests blow for Jeck at sea;
Yeo ho! lads! ho! yeo ho!

Chorus:

The sailor's wifa the sailor's star shall be,
Yeo ho! we go across the saa,
The seilor's wifa the sailor's star shall be,
The seilor's wife the sailor's star shall ba

Tha harbour's past, the breezes blow, yeo ho! lads! ho! yeo ho! yeo ho!
Tis long e'er we come back I know, yeo ho! yeo ho! yeo ho!
But true and bright from morn 'til night will be,
And all so neat and snug and sweet for Jack at sea,
And Nency's face to bless the place and welcome me,
Yeo ho! lads! ho! yeo ho!

The Bos'n pipes the watch below, yeo ho! lads! ho! yeo ho! yeo ho!
Then here's a health bafore we go, yeo ho! yeo ho! yeo ho!
A long, long life to my sweet wife end matas et sea,
And keep my bones from Devy Jones where're we be,
And may you meet a mate as sweet as Nancy Lee,
Yeo ho! lads! ho! yeo ho!

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in five staves. The first four staves are for vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass), and the fifth staff is for the piano accompaniment. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into two sections, A and B, marked by brackets at the top. Section A spans the first four measures, and Section B spans the next four measures. The vocal parts are marked with dynamics: ff (fortissimo) in Section A and mp (mezzo-piano) in Section B. The piano accompaniment is marked with ff in Section A and mp in Section B. The piano part includes triplets in measures 5, 6, and 7, and a long melodic line in measure 8. The vocal parts feature various note values, including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves, with the words 'The Rose Tree' appearing in measure 1 and 'The Rose Tree' appearing in measure 5.

The musical score is for the hymn "God Save the Queen" in B-flat major (one flat) and 3/4 time. It is a five-part setting for Bb Conductor, with five staves. The score is divided into two sections, A and B. Section A starts with a piano (p) dynamic and features a melodic line in the upper staves and a supporting line in the lower staves. Section B begins with a rubato marking and a crescendo leading to a fortissimo (ff) dynamic. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, slurs, and dynamic markings.

The musical score consists of five staves. The first four staves are in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The fifth staff is in bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). A common time signature 'C' is located at the top of the first staff. The music features various melodic lines with slurs and ties. The word 'rall.' (rallentando) is written below the staves at the end of the piece, appearing five times.
