

Heart of Oak, Naval March Past

This stirring march was composed by Dr. D. Garrick and first played in a London musical play. Tradition has it that the words were written by the seamen of H.M.S. Victory, Admiral Lord Nelson's flagship, after the battle of Trafalgar in 1805. The battle was the turning point of the Napoleonic wars as it secured the seas and therefore supplies for Great Britain. "Heart of Oak" refers to the heartwood of the oak, one of the toughest woods used in shipbuilding. This march is used for marching past a saluting dais on ceremonial parades by naval units throughout the Commonwealth, including the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets and the Navy League Cadets.

Lyrics

Come cheer up, my lads! Tis to glory we steer,
To add something new to this wonderful year,
Tis to honour we call you, as free men, not slaves,
For who ere so free es the sons of the brave?

Chorus:

Heert of oak, our ships, jolly ters, our men,
We elways are ready, steady, boys, steady,
We'll fight and we'll conquer again, and again!

We never see our foes but we wish them to stay,
They always see us but they wish us away,
If they run, why we'll follow we will drive them ashore
For if they won't fight we can do no more!

They say they'll invade us these terrible foes,
They'll frighten our women, our children, our beaus,
But if they in their flat-bottoms should chance to come o'er
Stout Britons they'll find to defeat them on shore!

Britannia triumphant, her ships rule the sea,
Our motto be justice, our watchword be free,
So come cheer up my lads, with one voice let us sing,
Our soldiers, our sailors, our statesmen, our King!
